

HOUSE SIMPLE RESOLUTION

BY

H. R. S. No.

WHEREAS, On this, the Twentieth Day of May, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-Five, our good friend and colleague, Alan C. (Bud) Atwood, has reached the ripe age of three decades; and

WHEREAS, This year of 1965 has indeed been momentous for Bud with all the innovations in his life: He is serving his Freshman term in the Texas Legislature; he became the proud father of his first child, lovely little Heather, who today is two months old; and

WHEREAS, During this not too placid session of the Legislature, Bud has distinguished himself by his conscientious pursuit of knowledge which enables him to perform the many duties of a State Representative admirably; and

WHEREAS, This dedicated idealist is ever on the job, day and night, ever ready to answer the call of duty; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Representative of the 59th Legislature wish him a most Happy 30th Birthday; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That despite this important day, he stay on the job of legislating to the best of his ability!
